Roll Over Accident Results In Fatal Injury

Santa Fe—One person died Friday, August 8th, in Guadalupe County. Christina Holcomb (22), of Edmond, Oklahoma was traveling west on Interstate 40 in her Ford SUV when she veered into the median for an unknown reason, over corrected causing the vehicle to roll three times and coming to rest on its tires.

State Police were called to the crash at about 6:45 AM, just East of Santa Rosa. Christina was pronounced deceased at the scene by a medical investigator.

Passengers Robert Holcomb (25), Jackson Holcomb (2) and Abigail Holcomb (6 months) also of Edmond, Oklahoma were transported to and treated for minor injuries at the Guadalupe County hospital in Santa Rosa.

Alcohol was not a contributing factor and seat belts were used.
